

Eels end Peanuts League campaign on a high

Hoddesdon's Eels team also won their final gala in the Peanuts League division one to ensure they finished seventh overall.

Competing at Potters Bar, Hoddesdon won 17 of the 41 races. Individual wins were recorded by Imogen Bell, Hayley Warrington, Emma Riddick, Amy Riddick, Matthew Hallam (twice) and Luke Broughal, with 10 victories in the relays.

The other winning swimmers included Jessica Souras, Jade Kersey, Georgina Fisher, Rebecca Freestone, Sydney Crouch, Phoenix Page, Kirstin Meikle, Tara Keswick, Rebecca Suzan and Jessica Waters.

The final squadron relay also saw Hoddesdon finish first with a four second margin.

Team manager Mark Charles said: "The first team really deserved that win. They've had a tough time. The first two rounds didn't really go to plan and they could've been quite demoralised and feeling really down.

"But they really turned it on in the last round and had an excellent gala.

"There were lots of really good results and they won it quite convincingly in the end."

Gala results: 1. Hoddesdon Eels 90pts; 2. Cheshunt A 111; 3. Harpenden 135; 4. Hemel Hempstead 173; 5. Potters Bar 184; 6. Tring 215.
